In what probably will be the final attempt by the Chamber of Commerce to have the proposed building regulations passed in the District of Columbia...

Ask Public Suggestion. Fifteen members of the chamber, representing every phase of business activity at the Capital, compose the committee...

It is practically settled that that provision of the regulations calling for 13-inch walls in the construction of small residences will come in for the greatest discussion.

Members of the committee regard the situation as being one which may result in bringing out some entirely new suggestions that have not yet been presented to the Commissioners.

Beginning of One Hundred and Twentieth Session Gives Bright Promise of Successful Year—President Himmel Makes Opening Address.

Greetings of returning students to faculty and friends were heard today in the historic halls of Georgetown University, which began its 120th session this morning.

When President Joseph J. Himmel addressed the students today in an informal welcome to the institution he informed them that the prospects for a most successful scholastic year were never better in the history of the school.

Outlook Bright. The law, medical, and dental schools of Georgetown University do not open their doors until later, but there is promise of a greater enrollment than last year in all three of these schools.

GUARDS BLACKMAILING PRISONER, THE CHARGE

PITTSBURG, Sept. 15.—More fuel was added to the fire that drew a Government probe of conditions at the Western Penitentiary when it became known today that Warden John Francis is investigating among the guards at the prison some of whom, it is alleged, have been taking tribute money from a wealthy prisoner.

The prisoner is serving a long term for the murder of his brother-in-law, and is said to be worth $100,000. It is alleged that three guards worked a system on the prisoner of magnifying infractions of minor rules and threatening to report to the "office."

charge of the prisoner's estate. The last demand, it is said, was for $1,000 for each of the three guards.

WESTERNERS FIGHT CENTRAL BANK PLAN

Say It Would Kill Rural Institutions and Concentrate Power in the East.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—The central bank idea outlined by President George W. Reynolds, of the American Bankers' Association, in his annual address and endorsed by President Taft in his Boston speech, may not be endorsed by the bankers' convention in session here.

Country bankers declare they could not see where they would be benefited, and expressed the belief that the bank idea would be established in New York or in some other city in the East.

The proposition is expected to come up at tomorrow's session of the general convention for definite action. Many Western bankers today expressed determination to fight, not only to keep the association from endorsing the idea, but to put the organization on record as definitely against it.

NURSE USES FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE BY DOCTOR'S ORDERS

Because of Good Results Miss Wood Recommends It to Her Friends for Throat and Lung Troubles

Miss Ella M. Wood, a professional nurse of Guilford, Conn., tells an interesting and convincing story of her experiences, in the following words: "During the years I have engaged in nursing, I have used Father John's Medicine in numerous cases by order of the attending physicians and as I have witnessed its beneficial results in lung, throat and all kindred distempers, felt justified in recommending it when asked a nurse's advice by friends, consider Father John's Medicine a safe, reliable and honest medicine, beneficial to both old and young, when taken as directed for specified troubles. My liberty to affirm my name and vocation to this testimony." (Signed) Ella M. Wood, nurse, Guilford, Conn.

Because of its pure and wholesome ingredients, which nourish and build up the body, Father John's Medicine so strengthens the system that it is able to ward off attacks of disease. Cures colds, coughs, throat and lung troubles without the use of opiates or dangerous drugs—not a patent medicine.
